Career-enhancing and International: HHL's Part-time MBA Recognized in Financial Times Ranking

For the first time ever in the Executive MBA Ranking of the Financial Times, HHL Leipzig Graduate School of Management has reached top rankings with its Part-time MBA Program for career progress of its alumni (2nd place worldwide), salary increase after graduation (almost 70 percent) as well as the international course experience (7th place worldwide).

The FT Executive MBA 2013 Ranking awarded HHL 69th place after rating a total of 100 business schools. It is considered to be one of the most comprehensive and significant rankings internationally for Executive MBA programs with a focus on General Management.

The ranking uses data from two surveys. One polls the university alumni who graduated three years ago about their current situation. The other one is conducted by the schools themselves. Assessment criteria for the ranking are, among other things, salaries and career figures as well as internationality and the structure of the school or program.

The Part-time Master in Management Program (MBA)

The two-year part-time MBA program with a focus on General Management is designed for people working in middle and upper management who would like to expand their existing knowledge by practice-oriented and up-to-date management knowledge. The classes held in English teach the basics of economics in combination with concrete management tools. The participants benefit from an innovative curriculum which is no longer structured in a purely functional manner but also follows an interdisciplinary approach in accordance with the challenges in management (Managing Investors, Managing Society, Managing Customers etc.). Due to the participants' various academic and professional experience (e. g. the fields of engineering, IT, finance, medicine, law) they have the opportunity to exchange views and learn from each other through case studies and group work. The proportion of international students in the part-time MBA program at HHL stands at 30 percent. The classes are taught by renowned national and international lecturers. The lectures take place in Leipzig on one weekend per month. They are combined with three module weeks which are spread over the entire two-year duration of the program. Two weeks are to be completed at HHL and one week in Boston, MA, USA, within the framework of the so-called Global Immersion Seminar. HHL stands out with its extensive network which expands the participants' personal and business contacts. A university degree and proof of several years of professional experience are the prerequisites for an application. The closing date for applications for the program, which starts in March 2014, is January 15, 2014. www.hhl.de/part-time-mba
