HHL - Leipzig Graduate School of Management ranks among Eduniversal's "Top Business Schools"

An international scientific committee selected the 1,000 most outstanding international business schools in the world. From December 2010 to March 2011, each Dean or Director of the selected business schools was asked to participate in the 2010 Deans' Vote - a survey of Business Schools in 153 countries officially chosen by Eduniversal. Country by country, Deans were asked a simple question: "Which business school(s) would you recommend to anyone wishing to study in this country??" In the deans' votes, HHL received four out of five palms and so counts among Eduniversal's "Top Business Schools". (Eduniversal Worldwide Business School Ranking 2011)

HHL - Leipzig Graduate School of Management

HHL is a university-level institution and ranks amongst the leading international business schools. The goal of the oldest business school in German-speaking Europe is to educate effective, responsible and entrepreneurially minded leaders. In addition to HHL's international focus the combination of theory and practice plays a key role. HHL stands out for its excellent teaching, its clear research focus, its effective knowledge transfer into practice as well as its outstanding student services. The courses of study include full and part-time Master in Management as well as MBA programs, a Doctoral program and Executive Education. In the 2011 Financial Times Masters in Management ranking HHL's full-time M.Sc. Program was ranked 19th in the world. With a leap forward of 19 places HHL has been climber of the year 2011 in this ranking in which it also holds 4th place for the salaries of alumni as well as 1st place for its "Entrepreneurship" orientation. In the 2010 Financial Times European Business School Ranking HHL reached 59th place. In the current ranking by the Latin-American business magazine AméricaEconomía HHL scored 33rd place and is therefore the best German business school in this ranking. Further information: www.hhl.de
