

The Francheschi Park Hotel

Your hotel in Cortina d'Ampezzo in the Italian Alps

As a Hotel in Cortina, there are few finer than The Francheschi Park Hotel. Situated on the steps of the hotel, are the Ampezzo Dolomites. With impressive, arresting scenery in this Alpine community, there are popular ski resorts awaiting the arrival of skiers and hikers. The hotel concentrates on well-being and this is apparent from arrival to check-in to the day of departure. This hotel offers free car parking, a video arcade for children, sauna, solarium, Turkish baths and with a full range of beauty treatments available, everything that could be needed is all under one roof. With WIFI throughout the hotel and satellite television in the rooms, this hotel is well appointed for modern day living yet maintains the beauty of the Dolomite region.

The hotel's rooms are furnished in the Ampezzo traditional wood and combine contemporary and traditional beautifully. The suites are classic, comfort and junior and with affordable rates and a range of special offers, the hotel experience will far outweigh the price. Dining at the hotel is a wonderful experience and with traditional Italian cuisine, carefully selected and prepared, the menu will have tastebuds tingling and hungry skiers will not be disappointed. A range of buffets offer warm anti-pasti salads and an array of menus to choose from, there is no better way to round off a day of skiing or hiking in the hotel restaurant.

Not only a winter destination, this Hotel in Cortina offers a stunning summer destination for those who like the sun and the summer brings the opportunity to visit the local region and soak up the culture. The public library is a wonderful place for book lovers to browse the vast selection of books. Cortina has a wonderful shopping area with elegant shops and boutiques to suit all tastes. Summer activities are just as exhilarating as winter ones and what better way to explore the Dolomites than on a bicycle. The perfect place for mountain bikers.

The Hotel is owned by the Francheschi family and its history began as a farmhouse. In 1923, Luigia Francheschi started the hotel as a small 'pension' and today, this hotel is a thriving business which offers the true value of Italian hospitality, that is world famous. The family's traditional atmosphere remains at the heart of the business and the warm welcome given is paramount to the hotel's business. Ever welcoming, hospitality here is second to none and guests will feel as though they truly are in their own home.

Without a doubt, this beautiful hotel, steeped in family history, in the Alpine valley of the Dolomites will not disappoint guests. A warm family welcome awaits guests and with family at the very heart of this business, a stay here will remain with you for many years to come.
