Donation of Computer Equipment to Charitable/Non-Profit Organizations in Bosnia and Herzegovina
The World Bank office in Bosnia and Herzegovina invites charitable/non-profit organizations active in Bosnia and Herzegovina to apply for a donation of used computer equipment. The equipment will be donated to one or more organizations on an as-is, where-is condition, with no warranty or guarantee from the World Bank. The following equipment will be donated:
6 desktop computers without monitors (Lenovo ThinkCentre M58)
10 laptop computers (Lenovo X200, T400 and T410)
5 UPS (APC 500-620 VA)
All computers have: Intel Core2Duo, 4 GB RAM, 160 GB HDD and Windows Vista preinstalled.
In addition to a letter requesting donation from the World Bank, an applicant organization should provide a brief description of the purpose for which the equipment will be used, a short organization's presentation with the most important accomplishments, and proof of organizations charitable/non-profit status. All submissions should be in English.
The equipment will be awarded by a committee comprised of the World Bank staff. Anticipated positive social and economic impacts of equipment use will be primary selection criteria.
The deadline for submission is September 20, 2013.
You may submit your application by email: mail_to_bosnia@worldbank.org
