Eni Board of Directors
Approval of 2013 interim dividend: ?0.55 per share
Rome, 19 September 2013 - At the board meeting held today, Eni Board of Directors resolved to distribute to Shareholders an interim dividend for the fiscal year 2013 of ?0.55 per each share¹ outstanding at the ex-dividend date as of 23 September 2013, payable on 26 September 2013. The proposal to distribute an interim dividend of ?0.55 was announced to the market on 1 August 2013, when the Company published its second quarter results.²
Holders of ADRs will receive ? 1.10 per ADR, with each ADR listed on the New York Stock Exchange representing two Eni shares, outstanding at the record date as of 25 September 2013, payable on 7 October 2013.
Eni's independent auditors have issued their report pursuant to Article 2433-bis, paragraph 5, of the Italian Civil Code.
The boards resolution on the interim dividend was made on the basis of the half year separate accounts of the parent company Eni SpA at 30 June 2013, which were prepared in accordance with IFRS. In the first half of 2013 Eni SpA reported net profit of ?4,122 million.
¹ As a result of the tax reform enacted on 1 January 2004, dividends are not entitled to a tax credit and, depending on the recipients fiscal status, either are subject to a withholding tax or are treated in part as taxable income.
² Pursuant to article 83-terdecies of the Italian Legislative Decree no. 58 of February 24, 1998, the right to receive the interim dividend is determined with reference to the entries on the books of the intermediary - as set out in art. 83-quater, paragraph 3 of the Italian Legislative Decree no. 58 of February 24, 1998 - at the end of the accounting day of the September 25, 2013 (the so-called record date).
On ADR payment date, The Bank of New York Mellon will pay Eni S.p.A.s dividend less the entire amount of the withholding tax under Italian law applicable to all Depository Trust Company Participants.
