Eni: Camilla Palladino new head of media relations, Francesco Gattei new head of investor relations
She replaces Erika Mandraffino, who is now Senior Vice President of Public Affairs and Communication at Saipem
San Donato Milanese (Milan), 7 October, 2013 - Camilla Palladino has been appointed Head of Media Relations at Eni, replacing Erika Mandraffino, who is now Senior Vice President of Public Affairs and Communication at Saipem.
Camilla Palladino leaves Enis Investor Relations office, which she had led since 2010. She previously worked as a journalist for breakingviews.com in England and has a degree in literature and history from Exeter College, Oxford University.
Responsibility for investor relations is assumed by Francesco Gattei, who previously ran Enis scenario analysis and strategic long-term options office. Francesco Gattei was also responsible for the Portfolio of E&P Division, where he held also numerous roles including planning, negotiating and commercial activities in Italy and abroad. He has a degree in Economics from the University of Bologna.
